Tyler & Officer Leddick

INT. LIVING ROOM - DAY

Tyler, armed with a gun, confronts Officer Leddick in his own living room.

TYLER

Yo prick. Remember me?

Officer Leddick is immediately terrified

OFFICER LEDDICK

Tyler? How did you get out? You're supposed to be doing life.

TYLER

I spent the last 13 years in prison because of you! I've missed 13 birthdays, 13 holidays, I've missed everything because of you! My son was just a baby when I got put away! He's a teenager now! He doesn't even know who I am anymore.

OFFICER LEDDICK

Tyler please... Just put the gun down.

TYLER

Shut up. Don't tell me what to do.

OFFICER LEDDICK

Look Tyler... Please... Let's not do anything we'll regret.

TYLER

I said shut up.

OFFICER LEDDICK

Look Tyler, I got money, jewelry, whatever you want. Please. You don't wanna do this.

Tyler opens the fridge, and grabs a beer. He begins to drink it.

OFFICER LEDDICK

Look. You don't have to do this. Let's just talk about this rationally. I'm sure we can come to some sort of understanding with each other

TYLER

You know, being locked up all these years really fucked me up in the head. So no matter which way you look at it, this isn't gonna end well.

OFFICER LEDDICK

You know... You coming here, breaking into my home, waving a gun in my face, escalates everything! They've probably already discovered your escape. There's probably officers racing over here as we speak Tyler. So if you're really smart, and wanna have any chance of ever seeing your son again, I'd get the hell outta dodge if I were you.

Tyler appears to showing signs of having second thoughts, Tyler lowers his gun which puts the officer's mind temporarily at ease.

OFFICER LEDDICK

I knew when it came down to it, you wouldn't have the guts to pull the trigger. Now get out of my house you son of a bitch.
