

KARL

- Endless complaints and don't get me started on the dog poop catastrophe on Palmetto street! you would quit before you started.

HARMONY

well, at least have the decency to look at it.

KARL

Karen will file your denied request, now if you excuse me I have a meeting on the golf course.

KAREN

Just leave me to do your dirty work, as usual.

KARL

My dirty work?! you run this place like the dictatorship of doom! Beige! everything beige! Whats next Karen? going to start checking the neighbors underwear?

KAREN

Well maybe if I had a little help I could be as carefree as Karl! Maybe I can start skipping around the golf course looking like a pink flamingo.

KARL

Whats wrong with pink! you loved pink when we first got married.
